OzzieMozzie, also known as Ozzie Therapeutic Products, is committed to ensuring we achieve the highest standard in the protection of privacy and how we handle personal information. Most of the information about you is collected by Ozzie Therapeutic Products with your permission. Any information collected is destroyed once an assignment is complete, or held in a secure database.

The information which we will collect about you depends on how you access our website. We collect personal information from a variety of sources including directly from the individual, from companies and employees about their employees and from business cards we receive. Our website does not use cookies to obtain information about you.

Our website uses Google website analytics as our web monitoring service provider. Further information about how Google collects and uses information gathered over the web is available from their website www.google.com/. If you visit the website to read, browse or download information, our computer system will record information about the visit such as the type of browser and operating system you are using, the previous site you visited, your server's IP address, the date and time of your visit, the pages accessed and any information downloaded. We only use this information for statistical, reporting and website administration and maintenance purposes.
